

WELLINGTON SCHOOL, AYR

Additional Staffing News, 23 June 2011

Further to the recent staffing announcement dated 21 June, I am pleased to confirm the following appointments for next session.

Miss Susan Duncan

Miss Susan Duncan joins us as Part time Support for Learning Teacher in the Junior School. Miss Duncan graduated from University of Strathclyde with a BEd (Hons) in 1994. She gained a Post Graduate Certificate in Support for Learning in 1998 from University of Strathclyde and completed further study of children with Dyslexia and Autism. She has worked for the past 17 years as a Support for Learning teacher in Dumfries and Galloway latterly at Sanquhar Primary School. She is an enthusiastic, highly qualified and passionate Support for Learning teacher.

Mrs Mhairi Gibson

Mrs. Mhairi Gibson joins us as Early Years Practitioner for the Outdoors Nursery. Mrs. Gibson graduated from University of West of Scotland with a BA Childhood Studies with Distinction in May 2011 having already qualified as an Early Years Practitioner with an HNC Childcare and Education in 2006. Mrs. Gibson joins us from Cairn Primary in South Ayrshire. She is a skilled musician, and is passionate about the creative learning opportunities available to children outdoors.

Mrs Gillian Simmons

Mrs Gillian Simmons joins us as Part time Early Years Practitioner for the Nursery. Mrs. Simmons graduated from University of Paisley with a BA (Hons) in 1998 and from University of Strathclyde with PGDE (Merit in Teaching) in 2007. She worked in Langfaulds Primary School, Glasgow and in Hospital Education, Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Glasgow. Mrs. Simmons is a dedicated, sensitive and caring teacher who will nurture our youngest children in Wellington School.

Mrs Lesley Hunter

Mrs Lesley Hunter is to join the Art department as a part-time Teacher of Art and Design. Mrs Hunter graduated from the Glasgow School of Art with a BA (Hons) in 1997. She has both primary and secondary experience, having taught at Port Glasgow School in Inverclyde, St. David's High School in Midlothian, Lasswade High School in Midlothian and the Heide School at Fallingbostel, Germany. She is a keen musician and sailor.

RM Parlour, Headmaster